1. Discover and compare NYC skyscrapers

[bruits urbains]

Guide [parlant fort]: Welcome to New York. Welcome to the Big Apple!

Matt: Hey, who's got a quarter for the telescope? I really want to look at ALL the skyscrapers in Manhattan.

Sarah: Just a sec, I'm taking a photo of the Empire State Building. [clic d'appareil photo] It's so impressive.

Terry: Yes, it is! And the Empire State Building is really famous. It is more famous AND more artistic than One World Trade Center.

Sarah: But, One World Trade is more recent and taller than the Empire State building.

Matt: And it's more impressive too! What about my quarter? I really want to see the Chrysler Building.

Sarah: Here's a quarter, Matt. Hey, do you think this is the Chrysler building over there or the Flatiron?

Matt: [bruit de pièce dans le telescope] It is the Chrysler Building. [ton amusé] The Flatiron is much smaller and older than the Chrysler Building, you know.

Terry: Hey, Sarah, you're right. The view is better here than on level 2.

Sarah: So many skyscrapers! I love it here! ... Right, time for lunch! Who wants a bagel?

Matt and Terry: Awesome, let's go!
