UNIT 7 - IT FREAKED ME OUT!

Remember – The day I met Dracula

• page 98

1. Describe an atmosphere

In the mountains of Transylvania there was a castle. It was the home of Count Dracula – a dark, lonely, terrifying place...

In the year 1875, Jonathan Harker came from England to do business with the Count. But Jonathan didn't feel comfortable at Castle Dracula. Strange things happened at night, and very soon, he began to feel scared.

And he was right to be scared, because Count Dracula was one of the un-dead – a vampire who drank the blood of living people...
