

Go further – There's nothing like an Australian holiday

• page 116

1. My Aussie bucket list

[sonnerie de portable]

Kylie: Hey Jack, this is Kylie, your penpal, calling from Daintree.

Jack: Kylie! Good to hear you!

Kylie: Listen, mate! You will be here soon, right? So tell me: what would you like to do here? Do you have any plans? If you want, we could go ziplining in the forest. It is so much fun!

Jack: Yeah, amazing, I'd love to go ziplining in the rainforest. It's on top of my Aussie bucket list!

Kylie: And I'll take you to the beach too, we could go kite-surfing! Don't worry, there aren't any sharks where we go!

Jack: Awesome! I'd really like to go kite-surfing with you! Could we organise a trip to the Outback? I'd love to visit the Kangaroo Sanctuary... or is it too far away?

Kylie [ironique]: Well, I don't know what far means for you in England! It's about 1,900 km from Daintree!!

Jack [riant]: Well, I guess I don't know my Australian geography very well! Let's keep it to Queensland then!