Inside Dover Castle

[Bruits de pas et voix qui résonnent. Les visiteurs murmurent et/ou poussent quelques exclamations en fond.]

Please follow me. We are now in the Great Tower. This is the Royal Bedchamber. Look at the actors: they're playing the role of the King and his court. Have a look at the wonderful decorations: they are reproductions of medieval times. There are tapestries on the wall and there is a splendid coloured cupboard. You can see the sea through the window and there is the old chapel next to the tower. Of course, there are various ghosts in the tower and you can sometimes hear screams.
