2.What should you do if you see a bear?

Ranger A: Okay guys, did you have a good hike?
Hikers: Yeah, it's a great day out.
Ranger A: Did you see a bear today?
Hiker 1: No we didn't thankfully 'cause I'm a little skittish around bears.
Hiker 2: You know I was wondering: what should we do if we encounter a bear?
Ranger A: Well, if you're lucky enough to see a bear, hopefully it'll be doing bear things like walking through the forest, eating or sleeping, but if you see a bear that's acting aggressive, do not run, because bears can run as fast as 30 mph over short distances.
Ranger B: The other important thing to remember is just stay calm. If you have kids around, pick them up because sometimes they can panic around a bear. Keep your eye on the bear, back away slowly and if it keeps coming towards you, you can throw rocks or sticks at it. Go ahead and yell at it. If it makes contact, be sure to fight back. And then let us know.
