

CD2 Piste 7. MP3 élève piste 80

→ p. 74

2. When Oisín met Niamh...

The beautiful woman and her horse approached the men.

"My name is Niamh," she said "my father is the King of the magical land of Tír Na nÓg. It's a land with no sorrow and where nobody ever ages. Are you Oisín, the greatest warrior in Ireland? I want to take you with me back to the Land of Eternal Youth."

Oisín immediately fell in love with Niamh. He was sad to leave his family and friends, but he agreed to join Niamh on her horse to go and live in Tír Na nÓg.